

PRIVACY POLICY - EP-TeQ A/S

EP-TeQ A/S respects your privacy. This privacy policy is aimed at protecting you by informing about the kind of information that we collect and what we do with it. We also describe how it is collected. By using our site, you agree to our privacy policy.

EP-TeQ complies with the EU Cookie Directive and the EU Data Protection Regulation (GDPR).

COLLECTED INFORMATION

EP-TeQ gets information about you when you subscribe to newsletters, do business with us or otherwise communicate with us or any of our suppliers. This also applies if you fill out forms on our homepage. We also survey online where we receive your comments. We store information on our own servers about:

- Your and your organization's name, industry affiliation, postal address, telephone/fax number and email address
- Correspondence for business purposes
- Purchased products and support agreements
- Information collected through cookies, pixel tags, and other technologies

WHY DO WE COLLECT THIS INFORMATION?

Your information is used to enable EP-TeQ to fulfil our commitments with you, improve our site and service to you, thereby ensuring that you get the most out of our services. We also store and forward such information as may be required by law. In order for us to find the best products for your needs, the collection of personal information is limited and always voluntary. As a user, you agree that we may send you further information. We do not collect and save additional information without your consent and you can always unsubscribe to our newsletters and other offers.

COOKIES

A cookie is a small text file stored on your computer. Cookies are used on websites to customize different features to the visitor. They are also used to create visitor statistics or to see how the visitor has navigated on the site. There are two types of cookies. One type saves a file for a long time on your computer. For example, it uses various features that tell you what is new since you last visited EP-TeQ's website. Another type of cookies is called session cookies. They are only stored in the computer while you visit a website. That way, the computer can keep track of the language that you have chosen.

YOUR CONSENT

When you use EP-TeQ's website or provide us with personal data, you consent to the collection and the use of your personal information in accordance with this policy. If you do not agree to the collection, use or disclosure of your personal data as described in this policy, it is not possible to use EP-TeQ's website or forms.

SECURITY

We take appropriate organizational, technical and administrative measures to protect Personal Data under our control. Unfortunately, no data transfer over the Internet or any data storage system can be 100% safe. If you have reason to believe that your interaction with us is no longer safe, please report the problem immediately by contacting us through the form under 'Contact' at our website.

THIRD PARTY

EP-TeQ does not disclose personal information to third parties. You will not receive such direct marketing from companies outside EP-TeQ.

UNSUBSCRIBE TO NEWSLETTER AND SIMILAR INFORMATION

If you no longer wish to receive our newsletters or other information, please unsubscribe under 'News'. Even if you make such a termination, you will of course still receive such communications from us regarding purchases and services related to your orders.

STORAGE

We will store your personal information for the time necessary to fulfil the purposes of this Privacy Policy.

MORE INFORMATION

You are always welcome to contact us with questions about data security and integrity. Use the form found under 'Contact'.
